WT Cargo

WHY US?

There are many logistics companies out there but not all are the same. We work with many technology exporting companies in the Americas so we know what's important to you.

First and foremost, we are dependable and knowledgeable in our industry. There is no task we undertake that we are not able to complete successfully. We take the entire logistics process and make sure everything flows to completion, fast, safely and with no errors.

We specialize in technology exporters, just like you.

Have you ever had your current logistics provider lose your merchandise? Or not ship it in a timely manner? Rest assured you will not encounter this situation with us.

Our account managers are highly trained and we work with your supplier in many cases to expedite the process. With our top of the line software systems, we give you end-to-end visibility, including accounting via web services.

We look forward to working with you. It all starts with a call, or visit our website and click on our contact button.
